LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

The next big event for us at Seymour is our Leadership Workshop Saturday, June 27.

Our elders take their role as our leaders very seriously. They want strong biblical leadership now and always.. They want to see that the present leaders develop into the best leaders possible. They also want to develop leaders for the future..

But, not only do they want these things for the Seymour congregation, they want them for area congregations, too. That is the reason this workshop has been planned.

The schedule is as follows.

8:00 a.m.— Coffee and donuts (A time to get acquainted)

9:00 a.m.—“Developing Good Relationships Among Leaders” - Tim Forlines

10:00 a.m.—“Developing Future Leaders” - Tom Miller

11:00a.m.—“Developing Counseling Skills for Leaders”
- Geoff Mabe

Noon — Lunch Provided

1:00 p.m.—“Developing Christ-Like Leaders” - Edwin Jones

2:00 p.m.— Questions & Answers

Men, please plan to attend. Don't say, “I'm not an elder, deacon, or preacher, so this is not for me.” You may be someday, and whether you are or not, you can learn some things about leadership that will help you and this congregation.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—This is the time of the year for vacations, and several of our folks have been on the road traveling. We pray for the safety of all. . . John & Dot Fitch continue to need our prayers, as John’s health is failing rapidly. He is mostly bedfast at this time. . . . Jody Miller had an appointment with a surgeon last Friday, and hopefully the procedure on her back will take place soon. . . . Natalie Whitaker has requested prayers for a friend, Abby Sheehan. . . . Keelie Whitaker has requested prayers for Janice Mink, who works at Kings Academy.

TWO BAPTIZED—Isaiah and Anthony, two of the Wheeler’s sons, were baptized Wednesday evening by Tim. What a wonderful thing. We congratulate these two fine young men on their obedience to the Lord, and we pray that they will always be faithful to the confession they made.
