ERIN THOMAS REPORT

Erin Thomas has returned from her recent trip to the Dominican Republic with MANNA Worldwide. MANNA focuses on caring for impoverished children around the world. They lead more than 50 trips each year to fight the global giants of disease, poverty, and illiteracy. They serve people regardless of race, gender, religion, or ethnicity.

One of the projects Erin was involved in while in the Dominican Republic was the renovating of a house that will serve as a student center in the town of Rio San Juan. The group did everything from painting walls to pouring concrete. She said it was hard work, too.

Erin, and the others in the group, also were able to assist in conducting a VBS and teen devotionals during the week. She was impressed with the sweetness and willingness to learn she witnessed in the children.

In her report letter, Erin wrote: "I learned a lot through the Dominican culture itself. Everything there is not focused around a set schedule and strict time restraints. The main focus in the Dominican Republic is relationships. I cannot think of a better way to grow the Kingdom of God than through building relationships." What a wonderful insight.

We are proud of our young people at Seymour, and Erin's trip is another indicator of how much they love the Lord and how much they want to help people. If you have any questions about her trip, or if you want to hear her rave about Dominican coffee, have a chat with Erin.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Austin McAbee has been quite ill this past week with a bad case of the croup. Please keep him, as well as his family, in your prayers. . . . Elijah Muniz has strep throat. . . . Lesia Potter asks us to keep her sister, Elaine Yancy, and her brother Steven McKee, in our prayers. . . . Norma Miller has not been feeling well recently. . . . Butch Potter has also not been feeling well recently. . . . We are saddened to report that Teresa Cruz has passed away. Her sister, Sherry Frits, is Trish Curtis' friend. Please keep the family in your prayers.
