Things You Will Never REGRET

Frank Sinatra sang, “Regrets, I’ve had a few.” Yeah, me too!

There are things I regret saying and doing. And, on the other hand, there are things I regret not saying and doing.

Just recently, I found a list of “Seven Things You Will Never Regret” written by the famous “author unknown.” I think they are worthy of sharing, and I include them below with some minor revisions.

- ◆ Showing kindness to an aged person or to anyone else for that matter.
- ◆ Destroying a letter written in anger. (Maybe for us it would be not hitting “send” to an email or post written in anger.)
- ◆ Offering an apology that saved a friendship.
- ◆ Stopping a scandal that was ruining a reputation.
- ◆ Helping a young person find himself or herself.
- ◆ Taking time to show consideration to your mother, your wife, your father, your husband, or your children.
- ◆ Accepting the judgment of God on any question.

Think about it.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST— Chris Wentworth is to have a PET scan the 24th to see how her cancer treatments are progressing. Be sure to keep her in your prayers. . . . Kella Whitaker has the shingles, but early detection and treatment has kept them from being as severe as they might have been. . . . Sharon Simpson continues to need our prayers and encouragement, as she deals with her cancer. . . . Ann Whitaker has begun another round of chemotherapy, which will continue once a month for the time being. . . . Doris Cronin's condition is worsening rapidly. Hospice has been called in. Please pray for the entire Cronin family. . . . Sam Martin's aunt, Dorothy McCreary, is now home from the hospital following her stroke. . . . Jody Miller was taken to the ER last Wednesday with what was feared to be a heart attack. It was chest wall pain/pleurisy. She is doing well. . . . Please continue to pray for Don & Sheri Blackwell. They were both injured in an ATV accident. Don was much more severely injured than was Sheri. The congregation has sent $500 to the Southaven, MS congregation to help with expenses.
