YOURS TO COUNT ON

Let me tell you about General Jeb Stuart, an officer in the Army of the Confederacy during the American Civil War.

Stuart was a West Point graduate. He was nicknamed “The Eyes of the Army.” Without question, he was General Robert E. Lee’s most trusted general.

Whenever there was some especially dangerous, clandestine mission to be carried out, Lee call on Jeb Stuart. His bravery and ability to gather intelligence under the most difficult of conditions were unparalleled.

At the end of each mission, General Stuart would send his report to Lee and sign it, “Yours to count on, Jeb Stuart. I like that. Jeb Stuart wanted General Lee to know that he could always count on him.

Every congregation, including this one, needs people who can be counted on.

Can our elders count on each of us to be positive and supportive of the work being done here? Can our fellow members count on us to be encouraging and to help carry our fair share of the work load? Can the Lord count on us to be faithful to His cause every day in every way?

Can you sign your report, “Yours to count on, _____”?
