THUMBS UP!

What a wonderful thing to witness. Lisalee Zelanka was baptized into Christ last Sunday morning. She gave her characteristic “thumb up” sign.

Lisalee is a delightful person. She and her son, Kayden, live at 905 Maryville Hwy, # 25, 37865. She can be reached by email at LisaLee.zelanka@icloud.com., and her phone number is 865-409-7509. Her birthday is March 7.

She first attended our services at the invitation of Olivia Potter. Isn't it wonderful that God can even use a child to work His will?

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Gary & Helen Graves did not feel well last Wednesday and were not able to be at services. . . Dawson Brown was also under the weather on Wednesday. . . . Davean Brown’s stepdad, Terry Tauscher, went to the ER last Tuesday and was treated with antibiotics. . . . Be sure to keep Kaylene Martin in your prayers, as she continues her cancer treatments. . . .

We are thankful that Marie Caprani was able to be back at services last Wednesday evening. . . . We are also thankful that Will & Jamie Curtis have returned safely from their trip to Japan. They are already planning another one. . . . Hagan Suttles had a swimming accident last week and was taken to the ER. All is well, and we are thankful.

FOR THE RECORD—Sunday: Bible Study, 54; Morning Worship, 75 + 13; Evening Worship, 48 + 10; Contribution, $1,638; Wednesday: 56. (The + numbers are those who are watching online.)

NEXT SUNDAY—Our services next Sunday will be a bit different. John DeBerry will be here for our Stand Up! gospel revival. The morning services will be as usual. We will have a covered dish luncheon following that, and then our second service will be at 1 p.m. Please plan to be present and enjoy the activities of this day with us.
