Revive Us Again

*We praise Thee, O God,
for the Son of Thy love,
for Jesus who died
and is now gone above.*

Hallelujah, Thine the glory!

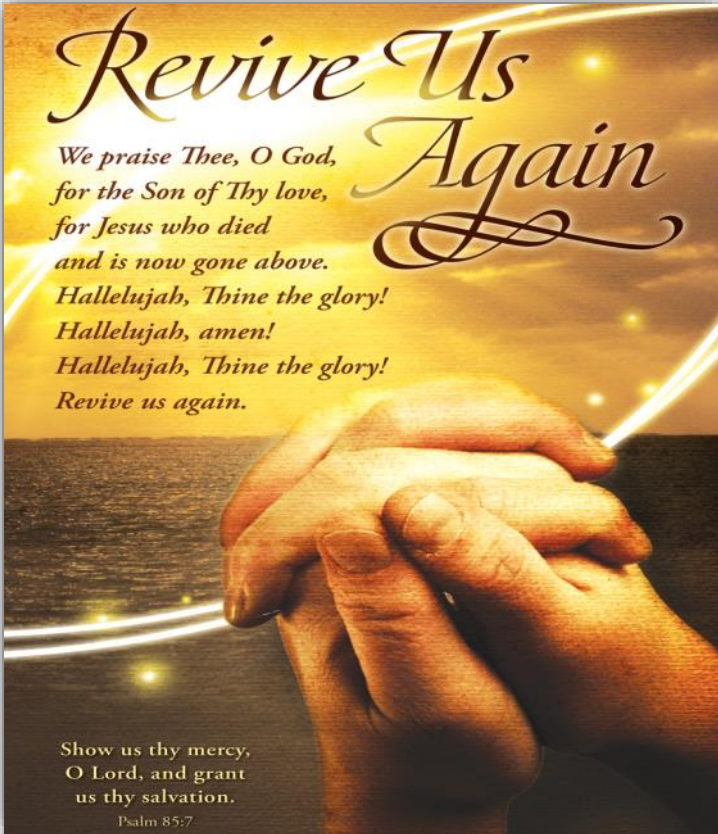

Hallelujah, amen!

Hallelujah, Thine the glory!

Revive us again.

Show us thy mercy,
O Lord, and grant
us thy salvation.

Psalm 85:7

Person to Person . . .

Tom Miller

IS THANKSGIVING OVER?

By the time you read this, Thanksgiving Day will be over. We may still be eating leftovers, but the day itself is over.

I do hope, however, that we have not confined our thanksgiving to a single day on the calendar. Paul suggested thanksgiving should be a continual thing. “And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful” (Col. 3:15).

If we allowed ourselves to do so, we could find reasons for not being thankful. There are negative things in our individual lives and in our nation and world that we find depressing and discouraging.

Like our Pilgrim fathers, we need to be grateful for the good things we have, and just a little thought will reveal that there is much for which we should be thankful. You see, thanksgiving is more a frame of mind than anything else.

John E. Anderson wrote the following.

When Thanksgiving day is over
Do we give up giving thanks?
Forget what God has done for us
And rejoin the worldly ranks?
Is Thanksgiving just a holiday,
No work and too much food;
Which helps to change our waistline,
But not our attitude?
Or does it serve its purpose—
To remind us what God’s done;
How He gave us life and substance;
How He gave us His dear Son?
